Item:	4.1 Youth Advisory Council Goals
Attachment:	None
Background:	All five district Youth Advisory Councils have selected goals that they seek to achieve during the year. Based on the goals that each council selects, they plan, coordinate and volunteer in a variety of events that seek to meet their council goals. At the end of each term year the council will report on their achievements in correlation to their council goals in the form of The Youth Commission Annual Report, which will be reviewed, filed, and presented to the Board of Supervisor's during a June 2021 Board Meeting.
Recommended Action:	Report
Recommendations:	Staff recommends that each commissioner report their respective council goals for the 2020-2021 term year. In addition, Staff recommends that each Commissioner also discuss how the councils have been working on their goals for the year.

Youth Commission

Item:	4.2 Youth Commission Projects / Collaborations
Attachment:	None
Background:	Youth Commission Service Projects are projects that all 5 Youth Advisory Councils take on simultaneously. The Youth Commission decided to join efforts to make a large impact and provide support to community members and organizations throughout the county. Current Youth Commission Projects and Collaborations include; Annual DPSS Foster Youth Graduation Baskets and Youth Opportunity Center Leadership Council.
Recommended Action:	Chairman Overview and Commissioner's comments
Recommendations:	Staff member, Bianca Vasquez will provide an overview of the Youth Opportunity Leadership Council. Staff recommends that the Commissioners report on their progress with the DPSS Foster Youth fundraiser.

Item:	4.3 Youth Commission Rebranding
Attachment:	Attachment A & B
Background:	In November's Youth Commission Meeting Commissioner's unanimously voted for a rebranding of the Youth Commission logo. At the January YC meeting commissioners presented logo suggestions from their council. The logo on Attachment A was unanimously selected as the top choice. Due to fees associated with editing this was the sole logo that was sent to Riverside County marketing team for polishing. The logo on Attachment B is the final suggested logo.
Recommended Action:	Vote to approve final logo
Recommendations:	Staff recommends that all Commissioners discuss the final logo presented and vote to approve.

Item:	4.4 Youth Summit Updates
Attachment:	None
Background:	The Annual Youth Summit is a conference that is held annually and completely sponsored, planned, and executed by the Youth Commission. High schools and other youth programs from throughout the county are invited to attend the event where we have several speakers discuss topics that are important to today's youth.
Recommended Action:	Updates
Recommendations:	Youth Commission staff member Bianca Vasquez will be giving the commission updates on our upcoming Youth Summit. Commissioners should ask questions and provide suggestions to staff in order to ensure the Youth Summit is a successful virtual event.

Youth Commission

Item:	4.5 Youth Commission Alumni Association
Attachment:	None
Background:	The Youth Commission has initiated an Alumni Association to create a space for our previous YAC members to stay connected with the program and current YAC participants. We have created an informal discussion on Zoom so alumni can catch up virtually and share their accomplishments and life experiences with one another. Along with that, current YAC members will be invited to listen in to all the great updates from our alumni.
Recommended Action:	Discussion
Recommendations:	Commissioners should discuss how current YAC members can be involved with the Alumni Association and share any ideas or suggestions that would benefit the Youth Commission.
